PLSC-EUROPE 2024 (AMSTERDAM) – CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

We are excited to announce a call for abstracts for the European Privacy Law Scholars Conference, which will be hosted at the University of Amsterdam, 24-25 October 2024.

Following the format of PLSC in the United States, PLSC Europe is a conference for discussing work in progress. In the PLSC format, discussants, rather than authors, present and kick off a discussion on an assigned paper. There are no panels or presentations by the authors and everyone is a "participant", offering their best questions and insights to stimulate discussion on fresh scholarship.

Our goal is to improve and provide support for in-progress scholarship on a wide variety of issues and topics that touch upon privacy in its broadest interpretation. As such, we very much welcome submissions from different (sub)disciplines, taking alternative angles to privacy and data governance more broadly. More information on the conference and scope can be found on our website.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS AND GUIDELINES

If you would like to workshop a paper, please submit a an abstract via our conference submission system by 3 May 2024: https://easychair.org/cfp/PLSC-Europe2024

Abstracts should be between 400-700 words and contain sufficient detail to review the approach and potential contribution of the work (for more detailed instructions, see website).

The program committee for the conference will review (double-blind) abstracts and acceptances will be made by 14 June 2024. Workshop versions of the paper are due 1 October 2024. We reserve the right to cancel workshops if the paper draft is not provided on time for meaningful evaluation by participants.
